

If world does not attract you, fear of Allah brings fear in your eyes, you worship Allah sincerely, goodness attracts you, your feet stop in the way of evil, you are a good man. Some are good men and some become. To be a good man is a work of constant purification and worship. It takes time and one has to bear hardships

---