Most of the people failed in their efforts for self-improvement because they set their goals ambitiously. They have not much time to accomplish their resolutions but in the wave of happiness they take big promises which they never achieved. For this unaccomplishment they also blamed time for this and never succeed.

It is a big basic mistake to announce our resolution to everybody because it made us answerable to everybody. And if someone ~~cannot~~ <sup>failed to</sup> cannot achieve its resolution it would be a disgrace for him.

The writer did not exposed his resolution on the New Year's Day because he wants to take it personal. If he exposed his resolution to everyone it would lead to a sense of mockery before everyone if he could not achieve its resolution.
