Translation:

History is full of such successful people whom started their life in very difficult situations but with the passage of time they became the most successful and renowned personalities of the world. Success, respect and recognition ~~can~~ never comes without hard work, only wealth ~~comes~~ can be attained without hard work if and only if your forefathers ~~should~~ have retained property, then you will get the <sup>wealth.</sup> ~~property~~. You can buy worldly things with the wealth but you can't buy happiness with the wealth. Sometimes, it takes decades to a human <sup>to</sup> earn respect but ~~it takes~~ only a single moment is enough to earn disrespect.
