God's love for Humanity

Once a pious man woke from deep sleep when he saw an angel recording names of God's lovers. His name was missing from the list. So, he prayed to be among those who love mankind. God rewarded him due to his sincerity towards humanity and the very next night his name was shown at the top of the list.

(59/167 words)