

"Translation"

If the world does not attract you towards itself, if your eyes become teary teary due to fears of Allah, if imagining about hell drives fear in you, if you worship Allah the way it should be done, if good deed attract you towards itself and your steps resist to go toward the path of bad deeds then you are pious. Some are pious and some become pious. Being pious is the sign of good destiny. ^{Becoming pious} is the matter of constant self purification and struggle. It consumes time as hardships are being borne.
