

Bahadur Khan

367

Translation

If the world does not attract you towards itself, if your eyes filled with tears with due to Allah's fear, if the imagination of hell arises God's fear in you, if you worship Allah like in the way which should be done.

If good deeds attracts you towards itself and your feet <sup>being stopped</sup> ~~stop~~ restrain from moving towards evil then you are pious. Some are pious and some become pious.

To be pious is fortunate. To become pious is a continuous process of self-inspection and struggle and it takes time and to face difficulties / hardships.