History is full of such successful people who started their lives under severe conditions. However, as they moved on, they became counted among popular and renowned personalities. You do not get success, respect, and fame handed to you on a plate; only money can be served on a plate, for which it is mandatory that your ancestors have had property for you to inherit wealth. With money, you can purchase accessories but not happiness. Sometimes it takes decades to earn honor. A moment is enough for humiliation or to become controversial.
