DMS ID = 34505

① Most of us fail in our efforts because while planning to achieve our goals we often set our expectations too high that it is even become impossible for us in achieving them.

② It is a basic mistake to announce our resolution to everybody before executing it because by doing so we give others the chance/opportunity of making fun of ourselves in case we are unable to perform it in future.

③ The writer did not carry out his resolution on New Year's Day as he was busy in enjoying the party that lasted the whole night.

④
