English Test-1

Preci

Q Write a preci of following — ?

For well-educated and courageous individuals, money should not be the primary focus of life same as dinner is not the main purpose of living despite its importance. Clever people may enjoy making money but they value their work more. For instance, soldier's main goal is to fight and win battles not just to be paid. Similarly, clergyman prioritize preaching and doctors aim to cure their patients. Although fee is important but dedicated professionals always prioritize their duty over financial reward.
