

English Translation Test 1

Batch 367
Mahnoor Mirwani

History is crowded with people whose life began in very difficult circumstances but they ended up among successful and renowned personalities. Success, prestige and fame are never served to you in a plate. Only wealth can be served this way. This too has a condition - that your ancestors must be wealthy. You can buy materialistic necessities with money; however, happiness cannot be purchased. Sometimes, it takes ^{years} decades to earn respect. To earn disrespect, a moment is sufficient.