

History is full of the stories of people who started their journey life with severe hardships but came out to become successful and famous. Success, honour and fame will never be served ~~to you~~ to you on a plate but only wealth is something that can be served on a plate. But, <sup>even</sup> for that, the condition is that your ancestors fore-fathers have are wealthy, only then you can be born wealthy. With wealth, you can buy material things but cannot buy happiness. Sometimes, ~~to gain honour, a person~~ it takes years for a person to gain honour but it ~~is~~ <sup>more</sup> a moment is more than enough to lose all that honour.
