History had filled of such successful peoples, those started their lives with most difficult situations, but in hereafter they were included in the list of successful and great personalities of the world. Success, honour, and glory had not put in dish for giving you. Only wealth could be put in dish to give you. For this, there is a condition that your ancestors should have wealth then you would get wealth. With the help of wealth you can bought world guarantees but never bough happiness. Sometimes decades passed to earn honour for human. There is a moment enough to earn dishonour or slaughter.
