

Translation passage

If the worldly life does not attract you, if your eyes get teary out of fear of the God, if the concept of hell makes you afraid from God, if you worship God as you should, if you are attracted toward virtue and your foot halt from moving toward the path of the evil, then you are a pious man. Some are pious, some pretend to be pious. Being a rightful person, is ~~the~~^a fortunate thing. To be a pious man requires continuous sanctification and struggle. It is a time taking process and you have to bear sufferings also.

Malika