

Precis

Title: The Name of Compassion

In a serene night, Abu Ben Adhem awakens to find an angel inscribing names in a golden book. Unafraid, he asks the angel about the list and learns he is not among those who love God. Instead of despairing, Abu requests to be listed as one who loves his fellowmen. The angel complies and departs. The following night, the angel returns, illuminating the room and revealing a list of those blessed by God's love, with Abu's name at the top. This story highlights the power of compassion and selflessness over my piety.

Total words Count: