

COMPREHENSION.

Q1:

Ans:- Most of the people fail to fulfill the promise made them for their self improvement. Most of the times we take to decisions for our self improvement and quitting our old bad habits. But, because of inconsistency we always failed in our efforts for self-improvement. An other big factor is that we usually in search of short-cuts for our self-improvement, which makes the improvement impossible. We should devise our goal and should try to achieve it through right path with consistency.

Q2:

Ans:- Announcing a resolution by every day is the main cause of its failure. Because, ~~that~~ at the beginning of the day, what we decide is sometimes unachievable at the end of that day, due to work load and tiredness. Furthermore, a man cannot manage his daily routine in advance and what he thinks to do remain undone most of the time. This is why we should not to announce our resolution by everyday.

Q3:

Ans:- The writer not carried out his resolution on New Year's Day because of his tough routine. According to the writer, he was busy in a party which was held in the celebration of New Year. But the reality was avert of that, attending the overnight party was just an excuse for him. The writer did not follow his resolution because of his coherence to his old habits, which were not letting him to carry out his resolution on New Year's Day.
