History is full of as successful persons, those who started their life in very difficult situations, but here after, they were considered prominent and successful persons in the world. Success, respect and love will not serve in the plate, mere wealth is served you in the plate. There is a condition for that. Is you fore fathers have a property then would have the wealth. You can purchase fittings of the world with wealth but not the happiness. Eventually a person have passed decads to earn respect, to earn contempts or to be abase one minute is enough.
