

Translation

History has many examples of the people who started their life with people difficult circumstance but became successful and famous in their life. Success, fame, honour are not handed on a silver plate. You can get wealth in a silver plate only if your ancestors owned estates. Wealth can buy material objects, but it cannot buy happiness. Sometimes it takes decades to get honour, but it takes a second to get dishonored and controversial.