

(Translation)

If world's material do not attract you; if tears roll down from your eyes by fear of God; if imagination of hell threatens you; if you do worship as worship done; if good deeds attract you and you stop yourself from doing bad then you are good human being. Some are good and some become good human being. Being good is fortune. and it is the continuous effort of act of warrior. It takes time and also bear the hurdles.