History is filled with triumphant individuals who started their life under immensely challenging circumstances but later went on to become renowned and accomplished figures. Success, respect and fame are never served to you on a silver platter, only wealth can be, and even then, with a prerequisite: your ancestors must have had property, only then you will receive wealth. With money, you can purchase worldly comforts, but not happiness. Sometimes, it takes decades for a person to earn respect, but gaining disgrace or becoming controversial can happen in an instant.
