

MURADUS SOHAIL
BATCH #137

DATE: ___/___/___

TEST 1

Precis Writing:

The well educated and wise man does not make money priority in his life. If he likes to make money the final aim of his life. It means his aim is limited to enjoy dinner. For example, if a soldier is commanded to fight battle without money. He will become grumpy. Despite of his real aim is to fight. In the similar way, to make money, is not the sole object of clergy man but to preach only. Moreover, If a doctor is good in true manner. He would prefer to treat patient first rightly. The aim of every well educated and healthy man is to serve first rather than being paid first. However, it is second.

Serve First. Get Paid Second 'OR'

Given Title : The True Educated Man Serves First.

Words in given passage : 238

Words in precis : 95