

Assignment Test #09

Precis

Title : Importance of Work
over Money

For a well educated and brave individuals, money is secondary to their duties. A soldier prefers winning battles than gaining money. A clergyman prefers preaching than getting paid. A doctor cures patients than making profits. It is true that financial gain is important. but, for well educated individuals, their primary goal is fulfilling their duties than financial gains.

Total word count: 230

Precis count: 60