TITLE : God Loves Those Who Love His Creatures.

→ In one peaceful night, Abu Ben Adhem awakens to find an angel writing in golden book.

Unfraid, he inquired angel about his task and learns that it involves recording the names of those who love God. Being told his name isn't listed, he requested the angel to list him down among those who love his fellowmen.

Angel complies and departs. Following night, angel return with great light and reveals names of those blessed by God's love, with Adhem's name on top, highlighting the significance of loving others.
