

Avoid confusing statement

DATE: ___/___/___

Title & For Capable Men: ~~work is about~~ ~~wages~~

All capable and well-read men make earning money, a second choice in life.

~~They believe~~ that the sensation of earning it is better than the material itself. For instance, a soldier would like to fight well; a clergyman would like to preach well and lastly, a doctor would like to cure the sick to the best of his ability. All of them, regardless of their pay, would like to excel in their respective fields. ~~As a result,~~ they believe that their wages are important but they always remain second to their goal.

Suggested titles for today's precis:

"Money is not the End"
"Profession as a priority over money"

Suggestions for improvements:
Do not make complex compound sentences

Begin and end precis with a precise/short sentence

Avoid enlisting
Do not explain all three examples separately, rather give an essence

Ideal words for this preci : 78