Q. Write a précis of the following passage and also suggest a suitable title: (20)

One night a holy man, Abu Ben Adhem by name, suddenly woke up from a deep dream of peace and saw in his moonlit room an angel writing something in a book of gold. He did not feel at all frightened. The peaceful face of the angel made Abu bold and he said to the angel, "What are you writing?" The angel looked up and replied in a kind and sweet tone, "I am taking down the names of those who love God." "And is my name one among them?" Asked Abu. But the angel replied, "No, it is not." "I pray thee then," said Abu, "To write me down as one who loves his fellowmen." The Angel wrote and vanished. The next night the angel came again with a great light which awaked Abu Ben Adhem: and he showed Abu the names of those who had been blessed by the love of God. And behold! The name of Abu was at-the top of the list.

The love of God: A man and an Angle

The author described that a man one night woke up from dream and saw an angle in his room. The angle was writing the names of those who loved God. The holy man's name was not included in the book of gold. The holy man asked the angle to include his name. The angle included the name of a man who loved his friends. The next night again the angle awaked up the man. Finally, the angle showed the book of the gold where a holy man's name was written on the top.
