Selfless Love / The Angel's list and Abu's wish

Abu Ben Adhem, a holy man, awakened from a dream in which an angel was writing something in a book. Instead of writing, he asked the angel's task. Angel answered him that he is writing the names of those who love God and stated that his name is not among them. In response, Abu asked to be noted as one who loves his fellowmen. The angel obeyed and disappeared. The second night, the angel came and showed the list of those blessed by God's love, where Abu's name was at top.
