

Test - Precis Writing

Once a spiritual man named Abu Ben Adhem was woken up and saw an angel writing something in moonlight. He was not scared rather he inquired to the angel about his writing. The angel replied that he was noting down the names of those who love God. Abu asked if his name was among those. The angel said no. To which Abu replied that he pray to be among those who loves his mankind. Next day, the angel returned and showed Abu the names of those who are loved by God. Abu's name was on the top.
