Translation - Test

If the world does not attracts you, if the fear of Allah makes your eyes filled with tears, if the idea of hell makes you fearful, if you worship Allah in way it should be, if the good deeds attracts you towards itself and you stop stepping towards bad deeds then you are a righteous person. Some are righteous some pretends to be. Being righteous is a blessing. It is a persistent act of purification and hardship. It takes a lot of time and efforts.
