Humanity is for most Precious

Educated man has the motto for humanity before all other needs such as wealth. Every professional person of any field can lead in his profession due to his dedicated and priceless help for poor and needy without any demand.

Weak understanding of the paragraph

Suggested titles for today's precis

"Money is not the End"

"Profession as a priority over money"

Suggestions for improvements:

Do not make complex compound sentences

Begin and end precis with a precise/short sentence

Avoid enlisting

Do not explain all three examples separately, rather give an essence
