TRANSLATION TEST-II

If the world does not entice you; if the remembrance of Allah Almighty brings tears to your eyes; if the notion of hell instills fear of God in you; if you do justice to the worship of Allah; and if you are attracted to the virtues and feel a repulsion towards the vices, then you are a righteous person. While some actually are righteous, others merely pretend to be one. Being righteous is a great blessing. But it requires self-purification and spiritual struggle in path of Allah. Furthermore, it takes time and one must bear hardships to achieve this status.
