

Good attempt!

You are righteous if the world does not attract you, if the fear of God brings tears in your eyes, and you refrain to adopt wrong path instead of the right one. Some people are pious, some pretend to be so. It is fortunate to be righteous. It requires continuous introspection and hardwork. It also demands ~~time~~ is time-taking and demands great (deal of) struggles in its way.

