

English Test - 1

Precis:

Title: Prioritizing ManKind Over Earning Money

It is difficult for a well-educated men to make money a principal component of his life. All healthy-minded people does not only like to win money, instead they desire pleasure from the sensation of winning money.

All the soldiers, clergymen and doctors do not only work to earn money. Some of them genuinely want to fulfill their responsibilities

Suggested titles for today's precis

"Money is not the End"

"Profession as a priority over money"

Suggestions for improvements:

Do not make complex compound sentences

Begin and end precis with a precise/short sentence

Avoid enlisting.

Do not explain all three examples separately, rather give an essence

Therefore, these individuals who are rightly trained and educated in true meanings always uphold their job primarily as primary and earning money as a secondary thing.

Precis words = 93

Total words = 300