do not make

For knowledgeable and courageous individuals, money is ~~not~~ the primary goal, just as dinner is ~~not~~ the main focus of life, despite its importance. While healthy minded people enjoy earning money, they prioritize their work over monetary gains. A soldier ~~pr~~ values winning battles more than being paid for it, a clergyman's purpose is to preach rather than be compensated, and a doctor aims to heal, not just to collect fees. For all ~~daring~~ and ~~truthfully~~ trained professionals, their duty is above than financial rewards.
