

ANILA RAHAT (137)

1. Most of us often fail in our efforts for self-improvement because our goals are too ambitious. Secondly, we do not find time to complete our goals. Moreover, our failure from the past experiences also play a role in not making an effort to change.
2. It is a basic mistake to announce our resolution to everybody because when we inevitably follow our previous routine instead of following our ambitions, it leads to make us foolish and we face discouragement and embarrassment.
3. The writer did not carry out his resolution on New Year's day because the night before he attended a late night party which became a lame excuse for him for not following his resolutions.

4. Intimidating

Unsettling

Peril

Dwindle

Diminish

Repel

Barb

Taunts