Title:- ~~Money Is Not Everything~~

For well-educated, intellectual, or brave people, ~~money~~ ^{Denotentialist} should not be the ~~primary goal~~ ^{It was not a suggestion} in life. Their focus should be on their work or passion. For example, a soldier's main goal is to win battles, not just the pay. Similarly, a doctor's primary goal is to cure patients, not just to earn fees. While money is important, it should not be the sole driving force behind one's actions.

It was not a suggestion

Suggested titles for today's precis
"Money is not the End"
"Profession as a priority over money"

Suggestions for improvements:

Do not make complex compound sentences
Begin and end precis with a precise/short sentence

Avoid enlisting

Do not explain all three examples separately, rather give an essence
