History is replete with successful individuals who began their lives under the harshest of conditions but eventually went on to become famous and successful personalities. Success, honour and fame are never served on a plate; unlike wealth, which can be inherited from ancestors. Wealth can buy worldly comforts, but not happiness. Sometimes it takes many decades to earn respect, while it only takes a moment to earn humiliation or become controversial.

History is replete with exemplary individuals who commenced their lives in exceedingly challenging circumstances, yet ultimately became illustrious and renowned personalities. Success, esteem, and fame cannot be bestowed upon you effortlessly; only wealth can be inherited if you have ancestral assets. For this, it is also essential that your predecessors have left you some property, only then can you acquire wealth. With wealth, you can buy worldly possessions, but you cannot buy happiness. Sometimes, it takes numerous years for a person to earn respect or fame, and it takes merely a moment to lose it by getting into a dispute or by committing a shameful act.
