

All courageous men do not make wealth ~~their~~ as main purpose of their lives. According to the author, everybody should enjoy their duties than making money. And everything will be fine if the well educated and acunt mind prioritized their actual purpose of lives over self-interest. Self-interest of a person in a field always come after primary mean of his job.

Suggested titles for today's precis

"Money is not the End"

"Profession as a priority over money"

Suggestions for improvements:

Title: Primary Mean Versus Self-interest in Life
Do not make complex compound sentences

Begin and end precis with a precise/short sentence

Avoid enlisting

Do not explain all three examples separately, rather give an essence

Ideal words for this preci : 78

Command over language is fine