Title is not accurate

Skill comes first, money comes second.

It is irrational for a wise man to make money his foremost priority. As people prioritize to eat healthy but that's not the only concern.

Do not break the paragraph

Just like soldiers, doctors and clergymen have interests in money but their foremost priority is their skill.

Suggested titles for today's precis

"Money is not the End"

"Profession as a priority over money"

Suggestions for improvements.

Do not make complex compound sentences

Begin and end precis with a precise/short sentence

Avoid enlisting

Do not explain all three examples

separately, rather give an essence
