

ENGLISH TEST - 1

It is impossible <sup>for</sup> well-educated, thoughtful and courageous persons <sup>to</sup> focus only on making money as basic need. Every professional wants to make money. But a responsible professional always strive to achieve important goals in life. They prioritize the services rather than money. For example, a soldier, a cricketer and a doctor pay for professional services. ~~But~~ if a soldier win the battle. He did not get paid. As same for cricketers and doctor, they are not paid for extra efforts they make. However, a professional person always prioritize their work first than their fee.

Suggested titles for today's precis

Original Passage: 232
"Money is not the End"

Passage Words: 86
"Profession as a priority over money"

Title should be at the top
Suggestions for improvements:

Do not make complex compound sentences
Title: Professional individuals prioritize their professions

Begin and end precis with a precise/short sentence

Avoid enlisting

Do not explain all three examples separately, rather give an essence