

TRANSLATION

History is full of successful people, those who initiated their life in extremely difficult conditions. But beyond they were considered famous and notorious in the world. Success, respect and prominency never served in a plate but wealth can be served in a plate there is Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner plz condition for this, you forefathers have ~~to~~ property then you will've property. Having wealth, you can purchase fittings of world, but not happiness.

Whenever person has passed decade to earn respect, Earning contempt or to be argumentative one moment it is enough.

Do not attempt word by word translation