Q- Translation

History is full of examples of people who started from ~~rock~~ bottom but ~~later~~ later climbed the ladder of success, becoming some of the most famous and influential figures in the world. Success, respect and fame ~~are~~ are not handed to you on a silver platter, only wealth might be, and even then, only if you were born with a silver spoon in your mouth. Money can buy you all the bells and whistles of the world, but it can't buy happiness. Sometimes it takes a lifetime to earn respect, while a single slip can drag your name through mud or make you controversial.
