

Title :: True Professionalism

A true professional never consider making money his prime object, he just take it as source of livelihood. For instance, a soldier fights, not because he is paid for it but because he loves to win battles. Similarly, a doctor gives treatment to his patient for motivation rather than the fee. They give importance to their profession rather than money.

Missed last idea

Just give essence of examples

Suggested titles for today's precis

"Money is not the End"

"Profession as a priority over money"

Suggestions for improvements:

Do not make complex compound sentences

Begin and end precis with a precise/short sentence

Avoid enlisting

Do not explain all three examples separately, rather give an essence

Ideal words for this preci : 78