Translation:

If the worldly things ^{do not} doesn't attract you, your eyes fill with tears due to fear of Allah, you feel fearful because of punishment of Hell, you worship the way it should be done, attracts towards the right and turns away from evil then you are the righteous person.

Some people are actually virtuous and ^{pretend} some shows to be. ^{It is} It's a good fortune to be virtuous.

The continuous effort and struggle is required to be righteous. It requires a lot of time and discipline. If you are not lured by the world, if your eyes get wet because of fear of Allah, if the thought of hell instills fear of God in you, if you worship Allah as it ought be done, if goodness attracts you and you refrain from evil paths, then you are righteous/pious. Some are born righteous, some become righteous. Being righteous is a fortunate thing. Becoming righteous is a continuous process of purification and struggle. It takes time and also requires enduring hardships.
