History is filled with people who started their lives in extremely challenging circumstances but later went on to become some of the most successful and highly respected individuals in the world.

Success, prestige and reputation are not easy to achieve. Only wealth can be given to you easily provided that your ancestors own that wealth. You can buy worldly things with money, but contentment can not be obtained through it. Sometimes, earning respect and prestige takes decades, but it only takes a moment to become contentious and face humiliation.

History is replete with exemplary individuals who commenced their lives in exceedingly challenging circumstances, yet ultimately became illustrious and renowned personalities. Success, esteem, and fame cannot be bestowed upon you effortlessly; only wealth can be inherited if you have ancestral assets. For this, it is also essential that your predecessors have left you some property, only then can you acquire wealth. With wealth, you can buy worldly possessions, but you cannot buy happiness. Sometimes, it takes numerous years for a person to earn respect or fame, and it takes merely a moment to lose it by getting into a dispute or by committing a shameful act.
