If the world does not pull you towards itself, If your eyes tear up from the fear of ALLAH. If the thought of Hell instills the fear of ALLAH. If you worship ALLAH, the way you should, If good deeds attract you and your feet stop you from going toward bad deeds, then you are righteous. Some are inherently righteous, while ~~some~~ ^{other} become righteous. Being pious is blessing, while becoming pious is the process of continuous purification. It takes time and one must endure hardships.
