

If you are not lured by the world, if your eyes get wet because of fear of Allah, if the thought of hell instills fear of God in you, if you worship Allah as it ought be done, if goodness attracts you and you refrain from evil paths, then you are righteous/pious. Some are born righteous, some become righteous. Being righteous is a fortunate thing. Becoming righteous is a continuous process of purification and struggle. It takes time and also requires enduring hardships.

Q Translate the following into English keeping in view the idiomatic/figurative expression.

If the world does not attract you, if tears fill your eyes out of the fear of Allah, if the thought of Hell instills the fear of God in you, if you worship Allah the way He deserves to be worshipped, if goodness draws you in and your feet refrain from walking on the path of evil, then you are righteous. Some people are born righteous, while others become righteous. Being righteous is a matter of fortune, but becoming righteous is a process of constant purification and struggle. It takes time and requires enduring hardships.
