

7/20

02 Duty comes first.

Money making serves as basic principle of man's life. But it cannot be replaced by other more important things. Like, for a health enthusiast dinner serves as an important part but it is not the only thing his priorities revolve around. Similarly, in other professions there are various priorities more important than just making money. Like, doctors, soldiers and clergyman's priorities their service more than the money they are earning through it. Thus, money is an important part of human survival, yet it comes second.

Leibca Suggested titles for today's precis Batch: OB 60
msid: 32174
"Money is not the End"
"Profession as a priority over money"

Suggestions for improvements:

Do not make complex compound sentences

Begin and end precis with a precise/short sentence

Avoid enlisting

Do not explain all three examples separately, rather give an essence