Write in idiomatic and proverbial manner plz

If world does not attract you; Allah's (God's) fear bring tears into your eyes; ^{imagination} ~~concept~~ of hell puts you in God's fear; you worship God the way you should; good deeds attract you and bad deed repel you, then you are righteous. Some are righteous while some pretend to be righteous. Being righteous is a matter of fate. Becoming righteous is a continuous process of purification and majahedat. It is a time taking and painful process.

Write in grammatically correct expression plz
