

Serving People: The Purpose of life

All wise people do not consider making money as their main goal. No doubt, money gives a sense of satisfaction when it comes while pursuing the main objective of the life. A brave soldier care about fighting well instead of receiving his pay. Similarly, a clergyman is more concerned about preaching. In case of doctors, a good doctor follow the similar tense his patient's well being. Although money is important, but it can not be the primary goal of a brave and well-educated man.

Suggested titles for today's precis

"Money is not the End"

"Profession as a priority over money"

Total Words = 236

Summarized words = 78

Suggestions for improvements:

Do not make complex compound sentences

Begin and end precis with a precise/short sentence

Avoid enlisting

Do not explain all three examples separately, rather give an essence

Ideal words for this preci : 78