

Translation

History is full of such people who started their lives under the most difficult circumstances, but they became successful and renowned personalities later on. Success, respect and fame are never served on a silver platter; only money can be served that way. It also entails a condition that your ancestors must have assets, so that way you can gain wealth. One can get worldly necessities with money, but it cannot buy happiness. Sometimes, it takes decades for a person to earn respect but a moment is enough to lose it.

Attempt

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner