Mock 1

Q: 02

Endless legacies of colonialism.

Imperial hierachies are deeply engraved in the psyches of colonizers and colonized - Colonial powers used to ~~tha~~ the narrative of civilization to legitimize their supressive rule. This narrative was internalized by opressed which made it easier for them to govern and control - This formed a love-hate relationship between colonizers and colonized. Thus, post-imperial consciousness depend ~~on the~~ & narr reflects the idelogies of both sides. Those who were colonized think about the loss of culture, identity and exploitation of their resources while colonizers think of decolonization as historical rupture.

Q:03

(i) Bashiran's family continue collecting money and ration as charity even after becoming financially stable due to lack of dignity. During their days of poverty Bashiran's family got so immune to the feelings such as dignity and self-esteem that even after ~~their~~ their situation improved, they felt no harm in accepting charity.

(ii) Through the story of Bashiran's family we can infer that the charity distribution system is not as effective as it should be. Often charitable money ends up in the hands of people who are not deserving. Donors should verify the financial situation of recipients in a subtle way to ensure that their charity is spent on rightful people.

(iii) The phrase: "No business is bad, and no religion is greater than business" depicts the mindset of people such as Bashiran's family. Such people will try to collect money without thinking weather it is mordly correct or not? weather they deserve it or not? weather they a right on this money or not? Through this phrase writer is trying to convey that for some people religious values, morality and dignity are concepts unheard of and money is their only supreme goal.

(iv) People like Bashiran's family hesitate to stop collecting charity for two reasons. firstly, they get so used to to collect free money that it gets difficult ~~to~~ ~~let~~ for them to let go of that money. secondly, having experianced poverty money becomes their supreme ideal which they will earn from any possible way because they for fear falling back into the pit of poverty.

(v) Unchecked charity praetices can have multiple negative impacts on society in long run such as:

1- All the charity can go to waste unintentionally because recipients are not deserving.
2- Those who actully deserve that money will be stripped ~~off~~ of their right.
3- The purpose of charity will not be fulfilled.

Q : 04

(ii) Neither the teacher nor the students knew the answer.

(iii) As a doctor, the illness was diagnosed quickly.

(iv) She suggested me that I should take a break.

(vi) The committee has announced their decision.

(vii) He is one of those writers who have won many awards.

CamScanner

Q: 05 (A)

As the rain poured outside, the detective turned to the suspect and said, "I know you're hiding something." The suspect looked away, then muttered, "What makes you think that".
"Your silence for one", replied the detective. "Besides you were seen near the warehouse that night".
"That's impossible", he snapped "I was out of town". "Really", the detective leaned forward and placed a photo on the table. "Care to explain this", then the suspect stared at the image, his eyes narrowing, "where did you get that", he wispered. "That doesn't matter", said the detective, "What matters is the truth".

B

(ii) His theory is not consistent with the available evidence

(iii) She was quick to jump to the conclusions without verifying facts.

(iv) He was engrosed in his research and barely noticed the time.

(vi) Their house is adjacent to a noisy construction site.

(vii) The committee is composed of experts from various fields.

Q: 07

~~Ramau~~

Ramanujan was a British-Indian mathematician whose work is still used in space technology. Due to poverty and not having interest in subjects other than mathematics, as a child he couldnt get admitted to a college. Finally, a British Professor Hardy took him to Cambridge where he was awarded with a B.A Degree. 2520 is his discovery. The quality of this value is that it can be divided by all values from one to nine. Ramanujan was a genius. Because of not getting proper diet in Britain this ~~genius~~ genius only at the age of 32 died in 1920. A feature film is made on him in India.